“ Mark you truly was my best friend. When you came and stayed a couple days with me out at dads and I was going through that terrible mess with Tim and you reassured me that I didn't deserve be talked to that way by any man. We shared a lot of personal stuff between us in that couple of days building fires and drinking coffee. I will miss you terribly. I knew I always had some where to go and you made that clear on our ride back to Chickasaw. I will always love and miss you my friend. Bernice

You go rest High on that Mountain Mark. I didn't want to see you go but I thank God that have no more pain and no more Dr Dr hospital. I could see it in your face that you were so tired of being stuck and probe on weekly. I truly believe that you are at peace now. You and Tina had a very special daddy/daughter relationship that nobody or nothing could ever say any different. I'm glad that Brian reassured you that he was going to take care of your baby girl and that is what you needed to go rest high on that mountain. God took another angel home. RIH Mark our hearts were not ready but God said it was time. With love Bernice.
